The 2017 Rochester International Airshow

ANNOUNCEMENT: Snowbirds Cancel Performances – ROC Airshow Events Cancelled

Rochester, NY, Monday, May 15, 2017: PEC Management, LLC, of 4424 Lyell Avenue, Rochester New York 14606, announces that the 2017 Rochester International Airshow, to be held at the Greater Rochester International Airport on May 17, 2017 has been cancelled.

“The Canadian Forces Snowbirds notified us that they will be cancelling our performance for Wednesday. As such, we feel the only proper course is to cancel the ROC airshow in its entirety,” according to Dave Cooper, Managing Director. “As much as it is an extreme disappointment to all of us who have worked to get the Snowbirds here, we understand and look forward to bringing future airshows to the community.” Cooper said.

Information from the Canadian Forces Snowbirds will follow at The Rochester International Airshow Facebook page and www.rocairshow.info when it becomes available.
